Head of School Letter

June 2020

Dear Lick-Wilmerding Students:

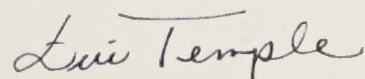

I congratulate each of you on completing another year of study and growth, while simultaneously helping to make Lick-Wilmerding such a wonderfully dynamic educational institution. Each day as I orient myself to the various activities on the calendar, I am amazed by the various goings on at the school. A typical day often involves club meetings, discussions in the Center, academic presentations and debates, screenings of student films, sporting events after school, and tutoring other students here at the school. This flurry of activity is a reflection of the passions and interests you bring to school each day.

But wait, not only did you manage to do all of this, but for the last quarter of the school year you did it online through distance learning! This is definitely the year that will be known for COVID-19 and the ways you quickly adapted to learning from home. The resilience and commitment shown by each of you will long be remembered as an exemplary example of Tiger Spirit!

Lastly, I thank Ms. Delgadillo, the editors of the yearbook Caitlin and Lucy, and the yearbook staff for their hard work producing this year's edition of The Tiger. Their dedication is yet another example of the spirit of service and care that permeates the school.

I wish you each a peaceful and restful summer. Seniors, I thank you for your leadership of the school this year and wish you all the best as you head off to your next adventures. My hope for you is that you continue to love to learn, and that you are confident in your own abilities. I thank you too, for keeping your faith in the school and each other during a challenging end to your year. Please keep in touch and visit often.

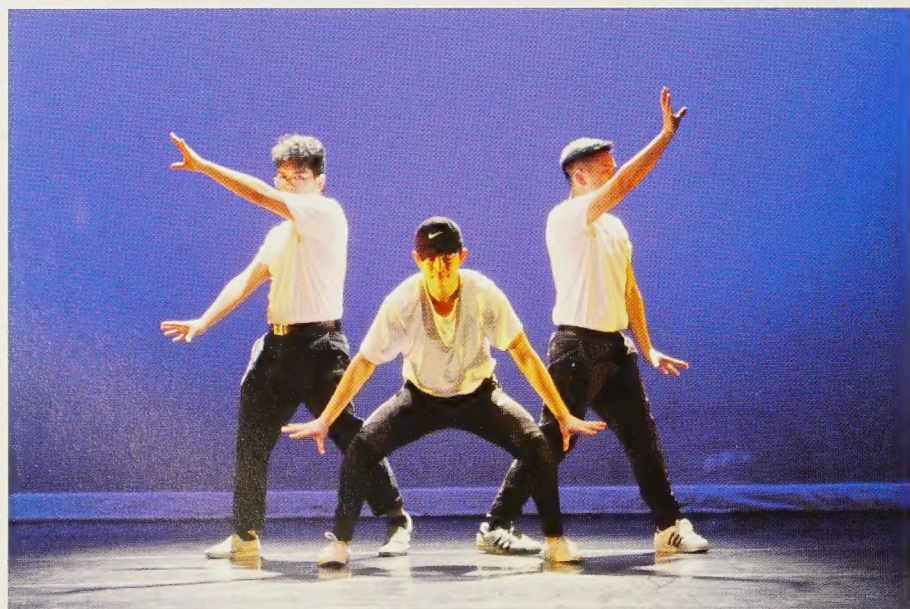

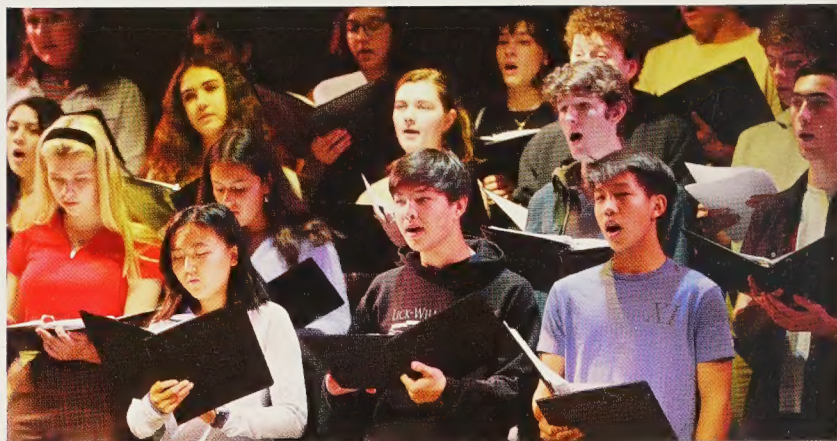

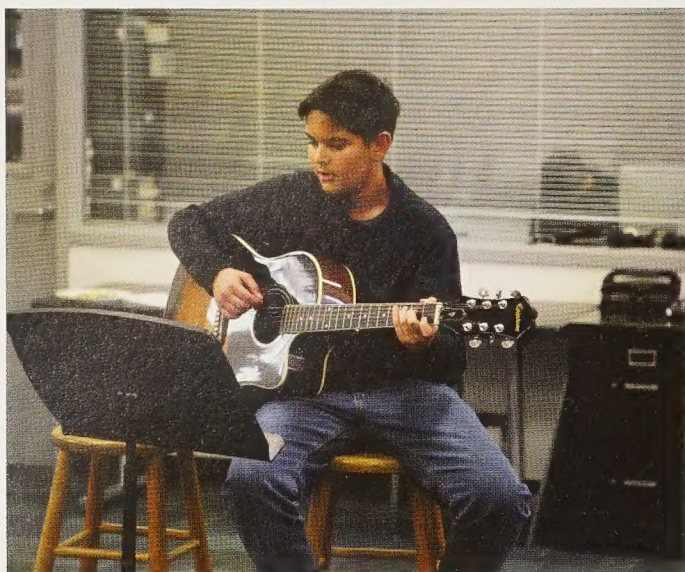

Kind regards,

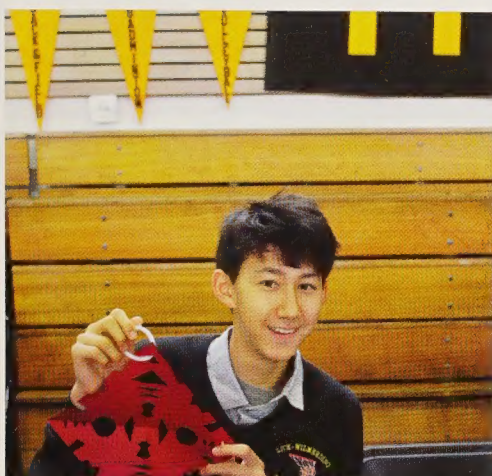

Eric Temple
Head of School

Lick-Wilmerding Experience Reflection

Let's see how much irony I can pack into this without getting in trouble. No criticizing Lick, no swearing, no drug references, nothing that would make the admin raise an eyebrow... Let's go! Here's my final experience reflection. This is the last damn reflection I'm going to do, but wow have I gotten good at them over the years. Thanks, Lick. (See? Gratitude.) Another thing I'm thankful for: over these four years, my hatred of The Man has been fostered to an extent I could never have done by myself. I wonder why. Incubating in a concrete nest of beige-panted individualists under the guise of the enlightened generation has done nothing to improve my view of the system, so maybe that's part of it. I'm not innocent. Look at my own participation, eager to line up for that 4.0. My mouth watered at that acceptance letter. That's another thing I am grateful for - I'm aware now, instead of that plaid dress shirt that walked on to campus four years ago, head blown out of proportion with compliments and fairy tales of the future, who hadn't had a single thought in their life. Yeah, it's they/them now, but I'm not telling anyone because I think they all expect me to wear a dress or more makeup first. So did I, so I don't blame them. Moving on. I guess the point is that I'm just confused. I spent my time trying to get good grades to get into a good college to get a good job so I could die in a good nursing home. I was never any good at being funny, so I don't know what you expected from this. I'm not the one who gave me a platform.

Dear Faculty and Staff,

Here is your copy of the 2019–20 yearbook. Unfortunately we missed a few student portraits in our review process. Please place each portrait in their respective grade level portrait section.

9th | Class of 2023 — Amelia & Colin
10th | Class of 2022 — Truman
11th | Class of 2021 — Anahi & Graham
12th | Class of 2020 — Calum & Jared

I am so very sorry that this happened and will be revising our review process to make sure this does not happen next year. This has been an exceptional year in many ways and I appreciate everyone's help in amending the 2019–20 yearbook to include all students. The students were all notified and given the same stickers after reaching out to the affected students. Each book was delivered with an apology from me and stickers.

My sincerest apologies,
